TRANSFORMATION IN HEALTHCARE:
HARNESSING ISLAM TO PROMOTE HEALTH & WELL-BEING

INTRODUCTION

The Kenya Association of Muslim Medical Professionals (KAMMP), founded and registered in 1998 is an organization comprising of Muslim healthcare workers in Kenya from different Cadres, different fields, and professional bodies such as Kenya Association of Physicians (KAP), Kenya Pediatric Association (KPA), Surgical Society of Kenya (SSK), Pharmaceutical Society of Kenya (PSK), Kenya Dental Association (KDA), among many others. KAMMP is an organization comprising of health-related professionals of Muslim faith serving in public, private and faith-based health institutions, local and international organizations and academia in-country and beyond.

KAMMP has been holding Annual International Scientific conferences with different themes based on emerging needs and priorities in the Healthcare industry. The conferences are aimed at enhancing professional development and provide a networking platform among Healthcare Workers and Stakeholders to improve Healthcare and services delivery, both nationally and globally. The heterogeneous composition of its members allows a variety of topics from different fields to be discussed hence encouraging a multi-disciplinary approach to the management of our patients and communities.
